Holiday Breaks from school allow time to:

- ◆ Read a book and then watch the movie it was made into. Sometimes the book is way better!
- ◆ Turn on some music and take a long soak in a bubble bath.
- ◆ Do an art or science project.
- ◆ Deep clean your bedrooms. As we spend winter months inside this helps keep our minds clearer and refreshes our environment.
- ◆ Do a scavenger hunt.
- ◆ Play board games.

Kids don't forget to look for the next NAHRO coloring contest for "What home means to me". We had two winners this year!
